What Is Xanax (Alprazolam)?

Xanax, also known as Alprazolam, belongs to the benzodiazepine class of medications. It works by enhancing GABA — a natural calming chemical in the brain — to reduce nervous system overactivity. This leads to a relaxing, stabilizing effect on mood, focus, and emotional response.

Doctors commonly prescribe Xanax for:

- Generalized Anxiety Disorder (GAD)
- Panic Disorder with or without agoraphobia
- Intense anxiety episodes
- Social anxiety and performance stress
- Short-term insomnia related to anxiety

Because of its quick action (usually within 20–40 minutes), Xanax remains one of the most reliable medications for rapid anxiety relief.
